Travis County is a member of Capital Area Council Of Governments ("CAPCOG"). Pursuant to Title 1, Texas Administrative Code, Section 251.3, the Commissioner on State Emergency Communications Rule for the Largest County ("CSEC Rule"), CAPCOG must return certain funds to County. County must use these funds for the sole purpose of reimbursing and funding eligible 9-1-1 system operation and network expenditures in compliance with that rule.

The purpose of this agreement is to provide the CITY funds for reimbursement of certain 9-1-1 system related expenditures.

Both County and City are authorized pursuant to TEX. GOV'T CODE ANN., ch. 791, to enter into an Interlocal Cooperation Agreement for the purpose described in this agreement.

County shall consider the types of expenditures that would most benefit the 9-1-1 system and determine the types of expenditures for which it will offer reimbursement each year. County shall also consider the notices received from all governmental entities for reimbursement of expenditures that comply with the CSEC Rule. County shall notify City of the type of expenditures that qualify for that year and the amount of funding that is available for City. The notice shall include a copy of Attachment A for the Contract Year covered by the notice, the allowable types of reimbursement, and the total amount of reimbursement available.

3.3 Current Revenue Payments. County shall pay for all costs incurred pursuant to this agreement from current revenue funds.

3.4 Compliance with Laws. County shall comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations in the performance of this agreement.

City is not liable for any claims, damages and attorneys fees arising from the negligent or illegal acts of County employees arising from responsibilities and actions under this agreement.

If both the City and County are found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be liable for any claims, damages and attorneys fees arising from the negligent, intentional, or illegal acts of both City and County employees under this agreement, City and County will be liable for the portion of the claims, damages and attorneys fees that arise from the negligent, intentional or illegal acts of that party as determined by the court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating the matter or as agreed in any settlement.

5.2 County Access. City shall give County, or its duly authorized representatives, access to and the right to examine all records, and other papers related to Equipment reimbursed under this agreement, at reasonable times and for reasonable periods. These rights to access continue as long as these records are retained by City.

All communications within the scope of the mediation must remain confidential as described in TEX. CIV. PRAC. AND REM. CODE ANN., §154.073, unless both parties agree, in writing, to waive the confidentiality.

10 Termination.

10.1 County Termination. County may terminate this agreement for one or more of the following reasons at any time in compliance with 10.2

10.1.1. City has failed to use the funds provided in compliance with this agreement and the CSEC Rule,

City may avoid termination of this agreement pursuant to 10.1 if City cures the breach to the satisfaction of County within twenty (20) days of receipt of this notice. This time to cure may be extended, at the sole discretion of County, as long as the City diligently continues to work toward completion of the cure. 10.5 Mutual Termination. Either party has the right to terminate this agreement when both parties agree, in writing, that the continuation of the activities under this agreement would not produce beneficial results commensurate with the further expenditure of funds and what conditions of termination will apply, including the effective date of termination.

11 Non-Waiver and Reservation of Remedies.

11.1 Non-Waiver. Any act of forbearance by either party to enforce any provision of this agreement must not be construed as a modification of this agreement or as a waiver of any breach or default of the other party which then exists or may subsequently exist. The failure of either party to exercise any right or privilege granted in this agreement must not be construed as a waiver of that right or privilege. In this agreement, County and City do not waive any immunity or defense that would otherwise be available to them against claims arising in the exercise of their governmental powers and functions.

11.2 Reservation of Rights and Remedies. All rights of both parties under this agreement are specifically reserved. Any payment, act or omission by a party must not impair or prejudice any remedy or right of that party under this agreement. Any right or remedy stated in this agreement must not preclude the exercise of any other right or remedy under this agreement, the law or at equity, nor must any action taken in the exercise of any right or remedy be deemed a waiver of any other rights or remedies.
